

Calling all students!

JOIN THE OFFICE OF ALUMNI RELATIONS TO GET OUT THE VOTE DURING

Vox the Vote PHONEFESTS

SEPTEMBER 30 — OCTOBER 23

A historic vote is taking place this fall in the Dartmouth community. Alumni are asked to vote on a proposed new alumni constitution and petition amendments to the current constitution that will affect alumni governance.

The Office of Alumni Relations is looking for lots of students to call alumni during five Vox the Vote phonefests. No need to know anything about the constitution—we need your help to encourage alumni to vote—and reach a record level of voter participation.

Want to show your Dartmouth spirit? Never met a free tee-shirt you didn't like? Know that 40 Dartmouth students in one room can only mean fun? Join us!

Free food, tee-shirts, totebags, and other gifts to all callers. In addition, there'll be random prize drawings for Boloco and Dartmouth Bookstore gift certificates and other booty. You can also earn funds for your college-recognized group based on the number of members volunteering (see reverse).

PHONEFESTS ARE:

Saturday, Sept. 30, 1–5 pm

Tuesday, Oct. 3, 5–9 pm

Monday, Oct. 9, 5–9 pm

Monday, Oct. 16, 5–9 pm

Monday, Oct. 23, 5–9 pm

Each phonefest is divided into two shifts (see reverse for daily schedules). Participate in one or both shifts each day, on as many days as you like. Phonefests will be held at the Top of the Hop.

Sign up soon—the earlier, the better.
