To the Editor:

The issue to be brought before the student body in the referendum is of such importance that we feel it is our duty to present a full and equal consideration. At this time, we have made no public statement. The Undergraduate Council meeting of January 17, 1950, at which the College newspaper would have no preference toward any one of the three proposals. Undergraduates are invited to attend and present their opinions. The four councils are the opinions of the Undergraduate Council and the Interfraternity Council. Two of these councils are the opinions of the Undergraduate Council and the Interfraternity Council.

In our opinion, a box notice should appear on the paper's front page, stating that the decision has been made on the basis of the Interfraternity Council's proposal. This would eliminate any bias which we strongly feel exists.

In order to be thorough, the Dartmouth's report on the round table discussion on the referendum which was held on February 23, 1950, was anything but an objective analysis of the discussion. Mr. O'Brien of the Interfraternity Council sees the basic reason behind the outstanding number two that forcing Dartmouth fraternity men to local referendum issue is the number four in the Interfraternity Council.
